Forum Told Demand For New Order

Trend Is Toward More Equitable Distribution Of Material Wealth

Speaking on the many pronouncements of the churches on economic subjects, Dean Arnold G. Bode of the local Church of the Ascension read significant excerpts from the Bishop's recent pastoral letter before the Sierra Madre Forum which met in the City Hall Tuesday night.

"A selfish and soul-less individualism that was insular and arrogant," Dean Bode quoted, "impaired our security, and wrought havoc in our social and economic life." Applause greeted the statement that the demand was for a new social order.

"No mere re-establishment of the old economic system will suffice," he said, "Christ demands a new order in which there shall be a more equitable distribution of material wealth, more certain assurance of security for the unemployed and aged, and above all else, an order which shall substitute the motive of service for the motive of gain."

The speaker stated that the report of the Episcopal Church on Social Service in 1931 said: "As Christians, our concern should be primarily for the forgotten man (this was before the President used the term); the man in smaller industries, on the farms and the migratory worker who is in the forests today and who tomorrow is in the wheat-fields or the orchards... We want no privileged groups in America."

Frederick Bull, Democratic candidate for the Legislature, told the meeting that the public needed men in office who had background of understanding of the poor. He showed how history and literature were concerned with stories of a flight and mighty people, until recent times, and the poor were considered "yokels, churls, and swine." There is still a hangover of such an attitude among the rich and comfortable people of today, he said.

Soldiers In 3-1 Win Over Pomonans

Burroughs, Harkness and Evans furnished the scoring punch needed Monday night for the local Legionnaires to rally and win from the Pomona 20-30 Club 3 to 1.

The Orange Pickers started out strong, their first man up cracking out a single. Number two popped out to Evans, as number one sneaked around to third and scored on another single. So ended Pomona's threat for the evening.

Sierra Madre's batsmen spent five fruitless frames playing with goosegees, then in the sixth Burroughs socked a three bagger into the shadows, Harkness was safe on a fielder's choice and Burroughs tallied when the catcher dropped the ball. Harkness went to second on a passed ball, Pratt hit to center for a single and Evans' hit scored Harkness.

In the eighth Evans was safe on the short stop's error, and came home when the center fielder (Continued on Page Five)

City Moves To Cut Fire Hazard Here

Forestry Department Concerned Over Situation And Weed War Starts Early

At the request of the U.S. Forestry service the City Council has opened its annual warfare on weeds and the fire hazard six weeks earlier than usual. A resolution was passed Wednesday night calling for immediate posting of notices on all vacant lots instructing owners to clean their property of any dried weeds that might constitute a menace, or the city will proceed with the work, the charges for which will be added to the property owner's tax bill.

Any objections to proposed removal of weeds may be voiced at the May 23rd Council meeting. Any objections to proposed removal of weeds may be voiced at the May 23rd Council meeting.

Because of the early summer heat, and the long dry period during the past months, the fire hazard in the mountains and in the city is very real according to forestry officials who are obviously concerned about the situation. Fire Chief W. D. Richards asks that everyone cooperate in observing caution in handling cigarettes, matches and the like, and in disposing of papers and rubbish accumulating in cellars and attics.

New PTA Officers To Be Installed At Public Ceremony

Installation of officers for the coming school year will be held by the Parent-Teachers' Association in the kindergarten of the Sierra Madre Grammar School next Wednesday evening, May 16, at 8 o'clock. An entertaining program is being arranged for the evening.

All adults in the community are cordially invited.

A pet show is being arranged by the school children for May 26 on the school grounds. Everything from chicks to ponies may be exhibited. Ribbons will be awarded.

Flower Festival Proves Social And Financial Success

Congregational Church's May-time Festival of the Flowers was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic audience at the public school auditorium Friday night, and the pageant, which was written and directed by Mrs. Waverly Pratt, proved an artistic success.

As the climax of the pageant Jean Spoelstra was crowned Queen of the May, and Lorne Pratt as King. Over a hundred children of the Congregational Sunday school, costumed in Spring flower colors, acted as flower attendants, dancing and singing the numbers that were written especially for them.

Visitor To Occupy Ascension Pulpit

The preacher at the Church of the Ascension next Sunday at 11 a.m. will be the Rev. Franklin Miller, formerly of Boston, Mass. He will speak of the Women's United Thank offering, which will be presented at the service. Dean Bode will leave after the early communion to preach at the 60th anniversary of the Episcopal Church in Anaheim, of which he was formerly Rector.

Observations

By Lee Shippey
VERY little work has been done on Wilson Trail and Sturtevant Trail in the last two years. As a result, accidents have occurred. It was tough on the hikers to build the first three miles of Sturtevant Trail, but it is rubbing it in to neglect the trail now. Slides have occurred where the trail is dangerous, and both trails should be made safe immediately.

Mothers' Day

By MARY WARD

Again we send her fragrant flowers, Remembering the many hours, So gladly spent in loving care, That we might know a childhood fair, And no matter what we've left undone, There's one believing heart; yes, one . . . Our Mother's; and that beloved name Now falls from contrite lips, and shame Compels forgetful ones to say That henceforth this shall be one day Forever set apart to honor her, Serene in lace and lavender. O, we are blest, all men above, We, who've known a mother's love.

Sierra Madre, Calif., May 10, 1934

Mothers Day Will Be Observed In All Of City's Churches

Messages telegraphed to the far corners of the earth, gifts of flowers and candy, public talks from the pulpits and just plain personal words of endearment spoken in the privacy of countless homes, will all be tokens of the universal honoring of Motherhood Sunday.

In Sierra Madre Mothers' Day will be observed at all the city's churches. Father Hyacinth Clarey announces that mothers of the Parish will be honored guests at the Holy Communion service of the men and boys at 7:30 o'clock Mass, and that breakfast will be served afterward. For the occasion Father Hyacinth has invited Harry T. Hennessy, one of the leading laymen of the Holy Name Society in the diocese, to speak. The Congregational Young People's Society of the Congregational Church will conduct Holy Vesper services at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, while at Bethany Church and the Church of the Ascension Reverend Stewart Sheriff and Dean Arnold G. Bode will make mention of the subject in their services.

Ascension Church To Show Movies Of Great Hoover Dam

Another leisure hour of moving pictures for everybody will be given in the Parish House of the Church of the Ascension on Monday the 14th, at 8 p.m. The entertainment is free to anyone and will consist of movies of the building of the gigantic Hoover Dam, shown by Rudolph Hartman and described by Mrs. W. Jarvis Barlow, who took many of the pictures and who is well known for her delightful descriptions. The large attendances at previous pictures have shown how welcome these free hours of entertainment are to the community in the time of increasing leisure.

Assessors To Meet Property Owners At The City Hall

R. J. Mills, deputy from the county assessor's office, reports that deputies will clean up Sierra Madre assessments in the next two weeks. Mr. Mills will be at the City Hall Wednesday, May 16, and Wednesday, May 23, to assist local residents in filing personal property tax returns and to receive returns of citizens who were absent from their homes when the field assessors called.

Building Permits Jump 19 Percent In First Quarter

The first quarter of 1934 ended in Sierra Madre with the building permit books showing a 19 percent increase over the corresponding period last year. Up to May 1 there had been a total of $22,143 spent in local construction work, as compared with $18,529 recorded for the January - May period in 1933. Building activity during the month of April also was appreciably livelier than last Spring, the comparative figures being $8,975 and $7,894.

Among the construction and improvement jobs recently started are the residential addition of Earl C. Wilcox in Floral Valley, the new home and two car garage of A. H. Holcomb, at 161 Alegria, and the new garage and residence being built by R. W. Carlson at 501 East Highland avenue.

W. S. Wagner, at 270 East Alegria street, re-roofed his house; R. M. Hicks added a screen porch to his home at 550 Oakdale Drive; T. C. Burnside is remodeling his residence at 826 Woodland Drive; William P. Caley took out a permit to re-roof his store buildings and Peter J. Weber, at 93 North Sunnyside, is adding to his garage.

Children Of Drama Guild Please Crowd

1600 See Little Sierra Madreans In Pasadena's Famed Gold Shell

The Children's Dramatic Guild of Sierra Madre presented its May Day program to an audience of 1600 persons in the Gold Shell Memorial Park amphitheatre in Pasadena on Sunday, May 6.

Three judges, Myrtle Harris M.A., of Stanford University training of the speaking voice; Mrs. Cordelia Smisart, teacher in the Pasadena Conservatory of music, and Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, local grammar school principal, were seated in the audience without the children's knowledge. It was difficult for the judges to arrive at a decision as all the children did commendable work and no prompting was necessary.

The following children were chosen for excellence in poise, voice, technique and sympathetic presentation: Marjorie Griffith, poise; Dorothy Hogan and William Carleton, presentation; Margaret Adwell and William Carleton, enunciation and carrying power of voice.

An award system has been inaugurated in the Guild whereby the children winning the largest number of stars by Thanksgiving of this year will be presented with books for their individual libraries.

As the Guild has no source of revenue this affords an excellent opportunity for some interested townsman to offer some of the awards.

The fairies on the Sunday program were Anna Sue Adwell, Margaret Adwell, Dolores Bartold, Marjorie Griffith, Dorothy Hogan, Grace Jensen, Betty Lou Lacey, Irene Lloyd, Mary Lou Lovejoy, Marjorie Pickett, Betty Spinks, Idella Taylor, George Tyree, and Virginia Uley.

Betty Fraunfelder and Helen Fraunfelder were Swiss yodlers, being accompanied by R. Fraunfelder, while a vocal duet was given by Mary Alice Harkness and Marjorie Croan accompanied by Victoria Ballesteros, Virginia Uley, whistler, Dolores Bartold, soprano, and Genevieve Benadum, pianist, performed trio numbers. Selections were rendered by a harmonica quartet composed of David Lobo, Allan Robertson, Buddy Hartman and Robert Davis.

Some of Mrs. Eakman's own poems were read by Betty and Dale Spinks, George Tyree, Herman Bartold, Margaret Adwell, Betty Lou Lacey, Idella Taylor, Mary Lou Lovejoy, Dolores Bartold, Marjorie Pickett, Marjorie Griffin, Grace Jensen, Dorothy Hogan, Anna Sue Adwell, Irene Lloyd, William Carleton and Bruce Mallory.

Smooth Crown City Tennis Court Hits Style Of Local Aces

It didn't help the Sierra Madre tennis team to play Sunday's return matches with Bessie Park on the Pasadena club's smoothly paved courts. Perhaps because they are so used to the puzzle-ment of tennis on the battle-field contours of the city courts, the locals were bewildered by their opponents to such an extent they lost five matches out of seven.

The day started with Perry dropping straight sets to Duryee, 3-6, 0-6, and with Charlton swamping Fuller 8-6, 6-1. Kaya, who rates No. 1 position here, polished off Rounds 7-5, 6-4, only to lose in his subsequent doubles match. He and Smith paired, lost to Vibert and Duryee 5-7, 6-4, 4-6.

Blanke gave Kaderback little trouble. Kaderback won 6-4, 6-3. Emile Smith, one of the two locals to come through in the singles, won the first set 6-2, slackened his pace to drop the second 1-6, then picked off the match set 6-4. Cannon beat Wood 6-1, 6-0.

Condition Of Trails Spurs Civic Bodies

Supervisors And Forestry Departments Asked To Put Them In Repair

With circulation of three petitions requesting immediate action in repairing the Mt. Wilson and Sturtevant trails to guard against danger to life, and against the tremendous fire hazard caused by dangerous or impassable trails, the city's civic organizations and private citizens commenced a campaign this week to secure action.

At the Monday night meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, that body unanimously passed a resolution asking the Supervisors to condition the trails and letters were sent to the forestry officials asking to what extent they would help in the work. Both the American Legion Post and the Kiwanis Club passed similar resolutions.

Michael A. DeTemple, now managing Orchard Camp for the Strain estate, requested the City to take action on the deplorable condition of the pathway to his camp, stating that there is a very real fire hazard in the mountains at this time of year and that all trails should be in condition for rapid transport of fire fighters and equipment in case of emergency. As the telephone line is down between Sierra Madre and Orchard Camp now this danger is increased, he stated.

Last year CCC men were employed in fixing the damage done by winter landslides on the Wilson Trail, and the Forestry Department supervised the work.

Pritchard Selected As Moderator

At the 48th annual meeting of the Southern California Congregational Conference held in Riverside on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard, pastor of the local Church, was elected as presiding officer as Moderator for the ensuing year.

Over 450 delegates were registered from churches embracing the area from Paso Robles to San Diego and as far east as Barstow. The numerous addresses stressed the necessity of applying the principles of Jesus to the changing social order, if that change is to be constructive and permanent.

The meeting next year will be held at Eagle Rock.

OUT-OF-DOORS PROJECTS UNDERTAKEN AT GRAMMAR SCHOOL REVEAL NEW METHODS

Preparation for the substantial and practical occupations and recreations was not one of the most general of the virtues of yesterday's primary educational system. Today the old three R's emerge in a brand new coat of lacquer, riding up to the minute lace-action transports and equipped with all the modern gadgets furnished by a wealth of physiological research data and scientific facts concerning methods of educating the very young.

Seldom does the taxpayer here think of the Sierra Madre grammar school as a revolutionary institution, surely never does he consider the school as radical. Yet, in the purest and best sense of the word, the organization epitomizes the revolution which has in recent years changed the country's primary school from uninteresting and uninspiring child-coops to comparatively liberal gymnasia.

Kidnapers Take Citizen Of Arcadia

Snatchers Working At Sierra Madre's Gates Spirit W. F. Gettle Away

The seriousness of the kidnaping situation was brought close to home Wednesday night when William F. Gettle, millionaire broker and former J. C. Penny executive, was spirited away from his Arcadia estate at 279 West Foothill boulevard, just east of Baldwin avenue.

Occurring as a swimming party was breaking up, the kidnaping was carried out by two masked men who tied a guest, James P. Wolff, West Los Angeles furniture man, to a tree and warned him not to move. After a long struggle he succeeded in freeing himself and notifying police.

Gettle, 40 years old and the father of four children, is a resident of Beverly Hills, having recently completed his country dwelling in Arcadia. He and Wolfe were accosted when they entered the bar in the party house to the rear of the residence, and at the point of a gun were forced down a path to where the kidnapers' car was parked, near the high east wall of the grounds.

As he walked, Wolff tossed a wallet containing $200 into the weeds, and Gettle pleaded with his captors to free him on condition he give them all the money he had with him. He told them he would go into the house and get some more money if they would free him, but they bound him and placed him on top of the five foot wall while tying his companion to a tree. According to Wolff Gettle fell from the wall, and from his groans seemed to be badly hurt as the masked men forced him into their car and sped away.

No description was gained of the kidnapers, other than that they were apparently Americans and athletically built. Gettle's description, as broadcast in a general radio police report, is: 47 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall, 200 pounds, slightly bald, light complexion, dressed in gray flannel trousers, light tan shirt and tennis shoes. He can scarcely see without the aid of his glasses.

Noted Teacher Is Coming To Bethany Church For A Week

Rev. Joseph S. Flacks will begin a series of meetings at Bethany Church Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service and continue through the week every night at 7:30, except Saturday. Mr. Flacks is a personal friend of Rev. Stewart R. Sheriff, the pastor.

Mr. Flacks is a Hebrew-Christian Bible teacher and evangelist having been around the world several times proclaiming the message of Christ.

As a Polish Jew he came to this country early in life and located in St. Louis where he became a clothing merchant. Twenty-five years ago he became a convert to Christianity and gave up his business to study at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

Bethany Church invites all to come to these services regardless of race or creed.

Law Classes Will Be Continued Here

Classes in the principles and practice of law will be continued every Saturday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock in the music room of the local grammar school. This study comes under the auspices of the State Emergency Education Relief. W. E. Enick, who has charge of the classes this week "Motor Vehicle Act Nuisances and Contracts." The classes are open to all persons interested.

ing the splendid housing, beautifully landscaped grounds and labor saving fixtures of the grammar school here, and most of the townspeople are familiar with the elaborate auditorium and earthquake-proof structure of the buildings. But few have been sufficiently inspired by the informative "school week" campaigns to become aware of the much more priceless items which the local school authorities and teaching staff have added to the mere physical features of the system.

First and most important for the health and mental growth of the pupils is the fact that none of the six grades incorporated in the school are confined to rooms. Each class, in addition to its basic instruction in the accepted subjects, is given the incentive for individual initiative by the creation of various "projects" that are carried on out-of-doors. These projects, linked as they are with the academic subjects

MAY DRAFT KING

Many weeks in advance of the primary and months before the general election John E. King, of Hemet, seems to have won the seat in Congress from the Riverside-San Bernardino-Orange county district. With his nomination conceded by opponents in his own party and his election admitted by leaders in the campaign of his Republican opponent, there looms now the strong probability that the outstanding Riverside county publisher will be drafted by his party as its candidate for the governorship.

His unquestioned fitness, high ideals and practical knowledge of State affairs are prompting the leading Roosevelt followers of California to demand that selfish interests and personal ambitions stand aside in the interest of a candidate who has more than a reasonable chance to win in the general election next November and carry through the Roosevelt program in this State.

At the moment, the President's followers point out, the Democracy is set for a cat-and-dog fight with not an avowed candidate that has a possible chance to win in November if he should win in the primary. King, on the other hand, is popular throughout the entire State, is not handicapped by the bitterness that attaches to a candidate who has been identified with the many factional quarrels of the last few years and enjoys the confidence and respect of independent Republicans familiar with his very creditable record in public life both in Minnesota and during his long residence in California.

Much Sought Books Added To Library

F. Scott Fitzgerald's most important piece of literary work since "The Great Gatsby," is among the new books added to the Sierra Madre Public Library shelves in the last month. Entitled "Tender is the Night," this late novel contains all of the sparkling style that made Fitzgerald's run of post-war novels so popular, and in addition encompasses serious psychological matter which undoubtedly will do much toward establishing the author in the top ranks of his profession.

In lighter vein is Clarence B. Kelland's "Catpaw," and Christie's "Murder in the Calais Coach." On the non-fiction list is the "New Dealers," which Harold Carew recently reviewed at a local Forum meeting. The book draws a deft sketch of present day Washington life, and is said to have been written by a well known press correspondent of the capital city who prefers to remain anonymous.

A total of 5,458 books were circulated at the library in April, an increase of 482 over the circulation in the corresponding month last year. The new books now available include:

Tourist Invasion Begins May 17 With Heavy Travel Seen

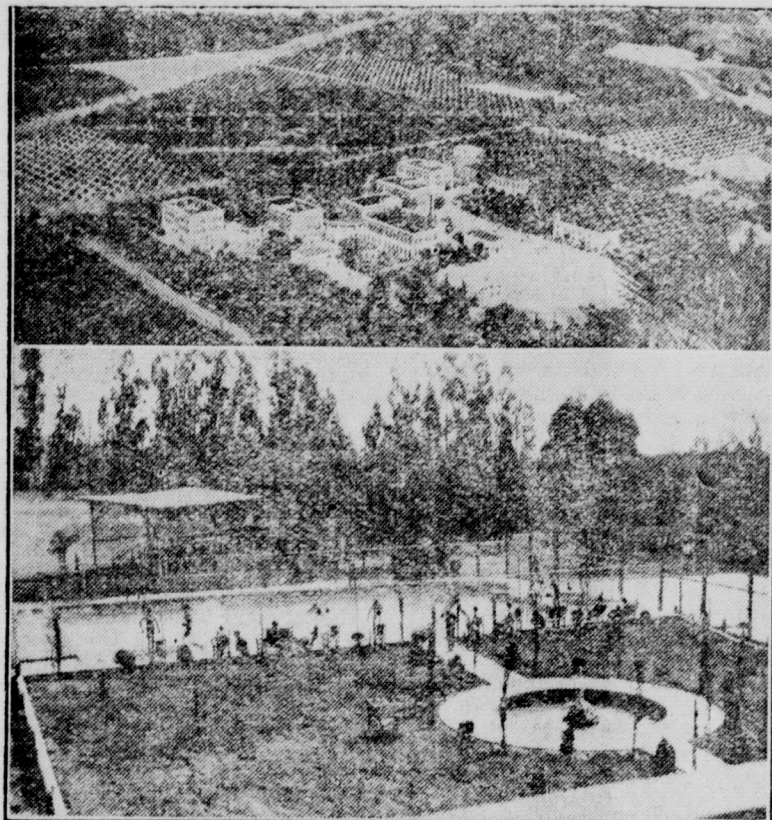

The vanguard of the "army" of summer tourists will reach Southern California on May 17 from cities in the Middle West, it was stated here yesterday by G. W. Weatherly, Southern Pacific district passenger agent.

Advices from travel centers throughout the East state that reservations of travelers for California are increasing, he added. However, many families are planning trips for later in May and in June, after the close of schools. The summer tourist season opens May 15 for travel both to and from California, providing the most moderate train travel costs in years. In addition, dining, lounge, observation, club and room cars are being air-conditioned for the warm weather on such limited trains as the Golden State, the Sunset, the Overland and the Cascade on Southern Pacific's four routes to and from this State.

Non-fiction—Kaufmann, "Artists in Music;" Winston, "Robert E. Lee;" Beens, "Europe Since 1914;" Fuller, "World's Stage, Oberammergau;" "New Dealers;" Saxon, "Let's Get the Pirate;" Roosevelt, "On Our Day;" Chase, "Economy of Abundance;" Moulton, "Best Poems of 1933."

MOVING PICTURE MAKES PLEA FOR SUPPORT OF MASONIC HOME

MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN at Covina—above air-plane view of home set in midst of thousands of acres of orange groves; (bottom) plunge and wading pool.

With the idea of arousing interest in Masonic Homes Endowment month, Rudolph R. Hartman showed a 4000-foot moving picture of the Covina Children's home, at a meeting of the Sierra Madre lodge last Tuesday evening. The movie, depicting life at the home, was in the form of a story, and proved very entertaining.

The Masons maintain two homes in California, one for the aged at Decoto, and the Covina home for children between five and eighteen. There are 94 boys and 82 girls at Covina now. Expenses at both homes have been trimmed to the minimum. May has been set aside as Endowment Month to obtain funds to prevent further curtailment. The Grand Lodge has not launched a drive but every member has been asked to face the emergency as an individual problem.

DANCE PUPILS WILL APPEAR IN RECITAL

Preparations are being made for the presentation of a June revue by pupils of the Cricket Calkin School of Dancing. The revue, exhibiting work done by pupils since the opening of the studio last October, will be held at the Woman's Clubhouse June 8.

MEETING OF WILSON HIGH P.T.A. TONIGHT

The Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teachers' Association will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The program and refreshments will be in charge of the faculty of the school. Anyone wishing transportation is asked to call Mrs. Rudolph Hartman at 103-2.

ARE YOU BUSY?

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Emeritus Dean of Men,
University of Illinois.

So far as I can remember I have always been busy. If I am not doing something with my head, my hands are generally occupied. I have never known what it is when awake to sit or lie still with no occupation of any sort. What I do when asleep only those who watch over me are conversant with, but I imagine I'm restless if not talkative.

"Can't you sit still?" mother used to say to me when I was squirming about in church, not interested in the sermon, but trying to get my hands into a hymn book or something else with which I might more agreeably occupy my attention.

Nelson comes into my office leaving a dozen people waiting outside to see me, and finds me with the desk piled high with the morning mail.

Of course I am busy. I shouldn't be earning my salary if I were not, but I do not say so. I simply reply, "I'd be very glad to talk to you if you wish," and the letters lie unread before me.

I am comfortably seated in an easy chair before the wood fire after dinner. "With Lawrence in Arabia" is in my hand half read and holding my attention with the account of the adventures of that impossible man. I am tremendously busy, and I have no desire or intention of being disturbed. I never was busier in my life.

The bell rings and I go to the door. Jackson stands without, hesitating, embarrassed.

"Are you busy this evening?" he inquires.

"I'd like to talk to you a while if you are not."

Now what he really means is that he'd like to talk to me, no matter what I am doing.

If you want to make a good beginning with a man of complicated and varied duties, it is just as well not to begin either by asking him if he is in a good humor or busy. He's probably both, but if he isn't, it won't help matters to inquire.

A. L. A. Activities

By Minnie Stinman

A VERY beautiful Mothers' Day Tea will be given in honor of all mothers, especially Gold Star Mothers tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ben Stinman, 439 Mariposa avenue, by Unit 297 American Legion Auxiliary. Our Gold Star Mother, Mrs. Mabel Sutherland, will be the special guest of honor.

The guests will be seated at picnic tables under a majestic jacaranda tree in the grounds of the Stinman home. The Junior Auxiliary will stand in the deep bay window of the dining room and sing some new songs they have been learning especially for Mother's Day. The Americanism and Community Service Committees of Unit 297 have charge of this tea, which is to be made an annual affair, in honor of the mothers of the men who fell in the World War, and of those who have offered their lives, but were fortunate enough to return home. All mothers who are members of the Auxiliary are welcome.

Our Community Service record was materially lengthened Saturday morning, when Leila Embree took the Tiger Patrol of Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts, to Camp-o-ral at Pasadena. This patrol, which includes Gail Hersey, Sam Embree, Edwin Evans, Billy Adwell and Bristow, passed the test with an "A," which entitles them to go to Camp-o-ral at Griffith Park. Mrs. Embree drove over on Sunday and brought the boys home.

Among those from Sierra Madre, who attended County Council last Friday were Leila Embree, Helen Lovejoy and Mrs. Caroline Brady. They reported a very interesting meeting of routine work.

May 17 is a red letter day for the Auxiliary in Southern California. On that day Mrs. Rae Biester, National President of the American Legion Auxiliary will be our guest in Patriotic Hall, Los Angeles. A number of members of Unit 297 will journey thither to meet Mrs. Biester, among them Leila Embree, Orceila Stinman, Helen Lovejoy and Dorothy Shetler.

May 18 is the date of the Legion's District meeting at Wilmar, with the Auxiliary invited to attend. Many members from Unit 279 are planning to be present.

As if these two days were not enough, the next three days will keep everyone busy. May 19th and 20th, two big days at Santa Barbara where the Fourth Area holds its joint meeting with the Legion. Many will go from the local Unit and Post.

As a grand finale, our own 18th District meeting comes on May 21, at Covina, and every member who is able to go, will be present, as extremely important business is to be transacted.

The Governor of California has officially designated May 25th to 30th as Poppy Week. The red paper Flanders Poppy, made by disabled veterans, will not be offered to the public before May 25th.

Describing the origin of the custom of wearing poppies in honor of the World War dead, Orceila Stinman, poppy chairman of Sierra Madre Unit 297 said, "A poem inspired it and a little lady from Georgia started it. While serving on the YMCA overseas headquarters at Columbia University in November, 1918, Miss Moina Michael, of Athens, Ga., received a copy of a magazine containing Col. John McCrae's poem, 'We Shall Not Sleep.' Touched by the poem's reference to poppies growing between the rows of crosses in the war cemeteries, Miss Michael decided to wear a poppy in honor of the dead. She purchased a number of the poppies and distributed them among the workers, starting a custom that has spread throughout the world."

GARDEN NOTES

By Jessie Ward Russell
Landscape Gardener

IT IS time now to change the beds of winter annuals such as stocks and snapdragons to the summer annuals.

African Marigolds, zinnias and asters are probably the three most desirable summer annuals for cut flowers. Other good summer flowering plants for bedding purpose are petunias, ageratum, bachelor buttons, penstemon, salvia, lobelia, columbine, ice plants, scabiosa, verbenas, phlox, sweet williams, portulacas, cosmos and chrysanthemums.

Ageratum, columbine, salvia, lobelia and sweet williams prefer some shade. Other shade loving flowering plants are hydrangeas, fuchsias and begonias. Lobelia is especially fine for borders in shady situations.

A combination of Rosy Morn Petunias and Silver Blue Petunias is fine in hanging baskets or boxes in the full sun. They are splendid as a ground-cover in parking strips too.

The new single red Oleander is showy as a shrub in the garden and is easy to grow, requiring very little care. There is a single deep pink variety that makes a bright mass of color in the garden also.

Avocado trees should be irrigated now. There is every indication that all avocado trees will bear heavy crops this year. They should be given extra water and fertilizer or they will be apt to drop their fruit in June and July. The trees that hold their fruit until August and are too heavily laden should be thinned.

ABOUT WOMEN

Leslie Grimsley, young Visalia, Calif., school teacher, majored in political science at college, and has recently announced her candidacy for State senator from her district.

First woman named a director of a federal land bank is Miss Corinne Lasater, of Paul's Valley, Okla.

Helen E. Hughes is the only woman in the billion-and-half-dollar motion picture industry who sits on the board of directors of a great picture company.

Merry Fahney, heiress to more than $100,000,000, grown tired of leading an idle life, has chosen to follow a screen career.

The will of the late Mrs. Josephine H. Isaacs of Memphis, Tenn., directs that a life-size painting of herself be taken from its gold frame and burned.

Her salary is only $9 a week, but Selena Bernstel has offered it to aid the defense of her sweetheart, Albert Shinsky, held in Pottsville, Pa., accused of the "hex" slaying of a 64-year-old woman who he said had bewitched him.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

DURING the last meeting of the firemen, someone suggested a picnic be held in the near future, where some of the fellows who think they can still play ball would have an opportunity to display their ability. With 20 men in the organization, two teams of equal strength could be arranged, with a very interesting contest to follow.

Tom Schwartz, our electrical genius, investigated the cause of the battery (in the Pierce Arrow fire truck) becoming weak. He discovered the trouble and remedied it, much to the satisfaction of all concerned.

After a long siege of confinement to his home, Andy Liscomb is around and about the past few days. He would have been out sooner, no doubt, if Mrs. Liscomb hadn't been his nurse. When we meet tonight, we expect to see Andy.

None of the fishermen have reported a big catch as yet. The famous boat that was made by the City Judge and the Chief of Police is mighty popular and is kept busy daily. The First Aid crew is anxiously waiting an expected call. We don't know what the boat is made of, but it looks as tho' it was made of lath and gunny sack. When one of those three inch fish happen to bump it we can then rush to the dam to rescue either McMillan or the Judge.

Big Citrus Acreage Is Now Affiliated With The Exchange

Over 2,000 acres of excellent producing citrus properties were added to the ranks of the California Fruit Growers Exchange this week with the affiliation of the property owned by the Union Oil Company and operated under a planter's lease by the Times-Mirror Company, Paul S. Armstrong, general manager of the Exchange, announced yesterday.

This property consists of 855 acres of lemons, which will now be packed by the Whittier Select Citrus Association. There are 1,140 acres of Valencia oranges and 140 acres of grapefruit, which will be handled by the Placentia Mutual Orange Association. Shipments for the balance of this season will be about 350 cars.

This property was leased from the Union Oil Company several years ago and planted to citrus by the Bastanchury Ranch Company. Within the past year a division of assets of this corporation occurred whereby the bond holders took over the original ranch and the Chandler interests took over the planter's lease.

Mr. Armstrong also announced that the Standard Oil Company had recently signed up its entire citrus holdings with the Exchange.

May Lower Living Standards Here

In any program to create a foreign market for surplus production in the United States by means of reciprocal tariff treaties, it is of the utmost importance that caution should be exercised to guard against imports from foreign countries displacing more American labor than is used in the production of the goods exported.

Basing his action on that statement of the fundamental principles at issue, C. C. Teague, president of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, today focused attention on dangerous aspects of legislation now pending before the United States Senate which would empower the President to adjust tariffs without hearings or congressional approval.

Teague's opposition to the radical tariff revision proposal was voiced in a review of the tariff problem, as it affects California industry submitted to The Commission of Inquiry on National Policy in International Economic Relations, now meeting in San Francisco.

Two-thirds of all imports into the United States, Teague pointed out, enter this country duty-free, and it is reasonable to expect that the actual volume and value of our foreign trade, both import and export, would be increased to a greater extent by increasing our buying power than it would by lowering tariffs on dutiable goods to admit commodities already produced here in surplus.

Concluding, Teague recommended that "There should be a continual critical consideration of tariff rates in order that adjustments will be possible with full information available. Such revision should be based upon principles that are understood by the interested industries and others affected in order that long-time programs can be entered upon with confidence."

"The proposal to give the President power to adjust tariffs within a range of 50 per cent without hearings would place tariff schedules in continual revision and seriously affect that return of confidence which is essential to a return to prosperity."

and book courses, naturally cause the children to appreciate the abstractions of geography and history as realities rather than as dry printed matter.

At the present time the 5-A class, under the direction of Miss Mary Pfahler, is studying Mexico. In conjunction with such study they are adding to the attractiveness of the grounds by making a Mexican garden and kitchen. The kitchen is thatched in true tropical style, the paths laid out between rocks implanted in the soil, and now Mexican plants and flowers are being planted artistically. In a sort of incidental manner the pupils are being made aware of soil culture—as the rocky ground makes it necessary for them to carry more fertile topsoil from other places.

If the 5-A class of this semester doesn't complete that job, then the work will be carried on by the 5-A classes of the future, and so is born a spirit of cooperation and the social consciousness of directed effort toward an ultimate end.

Up on the western slopes of the grounds is a colorful flower garden, which is tended by Mrs. Zayda Leonard's 2-A children. In conjunction with their Junior Red Cross work, these youngsters picked 60 bouquets of sweet peas and other gay blossoms which were sent as a token of cheer to a veteran's hospital. Down near the southern confines of the back yard is a cactus garden that has been kept under cultivation by boys and girls in Helen Wone's 2-B class.

An ambitious plan that will probably take a number of semesters to complete is the construction of the rock castle by the 6-B class of Mrs. Mary Wheeler. Because the class work includes study of medieval times and customs, the miniature replica of an old castle was started. It is being made with cement and rockwork, and will in time be surrounded by landscaped gardens of plants corresponding as nearly as possible to those of the medieval days in Europe.

Florence Lusted has done an unbelievable amount of constructive work with her pupils in art work. Every week the halls and auditorium are hung with water color products of theirs. Many of the pictures are freely imaginative, with subject matter dear to the child's imagination—dinosaurs, prehistoric reptiles, and curious twisted tropical plant-life. Most of them are more intelligible than a great deal of the cubistic and impressionistic art of presumably mature workmen.

Craftsmanship is displayed in paper-pulp dolls and animal replicas on show in Miss Lusted's room and in the hall cases, and in the molded clay pottery, dishes, figurines and trinkets constantly being made by the pupils too young to be expected to assimilate too many text book decrees.

One of the best examples of how one class is not only educating itself, but paving the way for classes to come, is to be found in the project started this year by 6-A pupils who are at work painting a large world map to scale on the floor (or roof) of the raised open air playground.

Approximately 25 feet across, the map was scaled by Miss Lusted, and now the children themselves are carrying on the somewhat arduous task of filling in the rivers, oceans, mountains and valleys with a flat coat of weather-proof paint. Detailed names of countries and principal cities, and multi-colored representations of places of importance will all be attended to.

When this reporter visited the project no teacher was in charge, but every child was strictly "tending to his own knitting," and very apparently found such work out in the sunlight as pleasant as could be expected before the advent of vacation time.

If there's another public or private institution of the sort in the country that has any advantage not possessed by the Sierra Madre school, you have to show us. Sliding doors that automatically transform classrooms to outdoor halls in summertime, the most modern and healthful cafeteria furnishing scientifically chosen nutritious foods at cost and even free to needy children, an auditorium of which many a theatre would be proud.

Topped by a staff which realizes that the importance of education of body and mind overshadows the values of "book learning."

Double Disaster Hits Kiwanis Team; Ace Hurler To Leave

Double disaster lashed out at the Kiwanis team Tuesday night. The sluggers dropped their first game of the season to the Angel City's aptly named Bureau of Power and Light outfit, by a score of 16 to 7. And, secondly, hurler Jobie Kiggins turned in his suit at the close of the contest.

Kiggins, who has been the ace-in-the-hole for the Kiwanians since the opening game and has showed plenty of sustained power in his pitching fin, plans on embarking for South America on a freighter in search of adventure, employment, or what he can find. His absence leaves a hole in the lineup that will be plugged by Phil Hedlund. Manager Jack Brain now has the job of scouting out a dependable relief man to fill Hedlund's shoes when the occasion requires.

Apparently realizing the team couldn't have Kiggins in the box for an indefinite period, Brain started Hedlund Tuesday against the strongest bunch of ballplayers the locals have gone up against so far. The Power boys smacked out nine runs in the first frame. Kiggins was sent in the fifth, but the added confidence he inspired didn't add any beef to his mates' batting strength, and he was hit for three runs. However, in the five frames he tossed, Kiggins struck out more men than Fleming or Brandt, opposing flingers, and allowed fewer bases on balls.

The home boys heard tales that the B. of P. & L. have lost only two games in the last three years in stiff competition—and incidentally one of the two teams to beat them was the Harrison finance company, slated to meet Sierra Madre soon. There should be a ball game. The score of Tuesday's game by innings, follows:
Kiwanis 210 400 000 —7
B. P. & L. 920 200 102 —16

Local Boy Scouts Qualify For Places In District Camp

Three Sierra Madre scout patrols qualified as class A outfits at the district Camporal in Oak Grove Park, over the weekend, and in consequence will represent this city in the regional Camporal at Griffith Park June 2 and 3.

From Troop No. 1 the Fox and Tiger Patrols, under the leadership of Gail Hersey and Charles Collins, and from Troop No. 2 the Panther Patrol headed by Lawrence Mishima, secured A ratings.

The tests commenced Saturday afternoon and continued until Sunday evening, with the scouts being judged on the same basis as they were in the local contests on points of fire-making, camp setup, equipment and the like. There were 700 boys from various troops in the district present, who demonstrated their ability in out of door crafts.

Rev. Father Hyacinth Clarey, C.P., pastor of St. Rita's church here, addressed the Catholic boys present on Sunday, while prominent Pasadena clergymen and rabbi spoke to the Protestant and Jewish scouts.

Among the judges of the many events contested were Sierra Madre Scout Commissioner Arthur Evans, Colonel H. B. Hersey, Fred McLellan, Jerry Hemming and Norman Jensen.

Kiwanians Hold La Cola To Lone Run

The Sierra Madre Kiwanians trounced the La Cola Club of Los Angeles here Friday night 5 to 1.

Marsh, Hedley, Fred LaLone and Kiggins did the scoring, while Brain connected twice, once for a double, though he didn't break into the run column of the box score. Kiggins was effective throughout the game and had perfect control, striking out 15 men while the opposing slabbist fanned three locals. The score:

Honor Motherhood At Social Session Of Eastern Star

ONDAY, May 7th, was "Mothers' Night" at the local Eastern Star Chapter. Following the stated meeting a program honoring motherhood, was given. Mrs. Hortense Hill, one of the older members of the chapter and a past Worthy Matron, dressed in a costume of the 80's, and looking like Whistler's famous painting, symbolizing the "Spirit of Motherhood." Little Marvel Roberts gave two recitations, Miss Roberta Roberts two piano solos, Miss Elizabeth Morgridge, accompanied by her mother, played two violin numbers, Miss Ruth Allen gave a reading and Miss Lillian Kennedy and Dorothy Wammock sang a duet to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. Donna Robertson.

This latter song "My Mother's Garden" is a composition of Mrs. Dorothy B. Polse, local composer and poet. Given a place of honor in the meeting hall was a photograph of Anna Jarvis, personal friend of Mrs. Elizabeth Dietz, instigator of the now famous

Visiting Bankers Win From Legion In Close Game 2 To 1

In a hotly contested tilt that nearly left the local Soldiery holding the sack full of shutout, the California Bank outfit scored a 2-1 win here last Thursday night. Neither team could break through for anything fatter than a double, and although Sierra Madre had the bases loaded in the fourth they spoiled their scoring chances by flying out twice in a row.

The lone score came in the seventh frame when Evans singled, stole second, and came home on a two-base hit by Mathis. In the sixth the Bankers fixed themselves up for the evening with a couple of singles, a sacrifice run and an error.

Mother's Day. Following the program refreshments were served and arm bouquets of garden flowers were presented to each mother present. All of the entertainers were children of local Eastern Star or Masonic Lodge members and each was presented with an old fashioned nosegay of flowers. John Noble acted as master of ceremonies and Mrs. Mary Wammock was chairman of the evening.
